

Give the Gift of Life – Mascot Design Contest Terms & Conditions

- The Competition is open to all Indian Citizens.
- All entries for the Contest must be submitted through the MyGov platform, www.mygov.in. Entries submitted through any other medium/ mode would not be considered for evaluation.
- Participants should submit their entries on a white A4 size sheet. (PDF format only).
- A participant can submit only one entry. In case it is found that any participant has submitted more than one entry, all his/ her entries will be considered invalid.
- The submitted designs of the mascot must be original and created by the participant himself/herself.
- The participant is to ensure that his/her MyGov profile is accurate and updated since the Ministry will use this for further communication. This includes details such as name, photo, and phone number. Entries with incomplete profiles would not be considered.
- The results of the Competition will be declared through blog.mygov.in
- The entry must not contain any provocative, objectionable, or inappropriate content.
- The MoHFW may use the winning entries, for promotional and display purposes, IEC (Information, Education, and Communication) materials, and any other use deemed appropriate.
- The decision of the Selection Committee would be final and binding on all the participants and no clarifications would be issued to any participants for any of their decisions.
- Any legal proceedings arising out of the competition/its entries/ winners shall be subject to the jurisdiction of Delhi.
- By participating in the Contest, participants agree to be bound by and are deemed to have read and understood these terms and conditions.