

Student Podcast Contest

APRIL 17-MAY 15, 2024

Cindy Lozito

Do you listen to podcasts? Have you ever thought about creating one? What would you talk about? Who might you like to interview? What thoughts, talents, insights, opinions or stories would you want to share with the world?

In our Seventh Annual Podcast Contest, we invite teenagers to submit original podcasts of five minutes or less. Our favorites will be featured on The Learning Network.

For this contest ...

You can work in any podcast format or genre.

Your podcast should have a beginning, middle and end.

Your podcast must be five minutes or less.

Contest Rules

- The contest is open to students ages 13 to 19 in middle or high school anywhere in the world.
- You cannot use copyrighted sound effects or music in your podcast, unless they fall under limited fair use exceptions.
- Students may work together, however, each student may submit only one entry.
- Entries must be uploaded to a podcasting platform of your choice and submitted through our submission form.
- The deadline for this contest is May 15, 2024 at 11:59 p.m. Pacific time.

Visit the contest page to see the full guidelines and submit.
