

Poster Making Competition on Beat the Heat

Terms and Conditions

1. The Online Poster Competition Contest is being organized by NDMA through the MyGov platform.
2. Entry into the Contest is open to Indian citizens of all ages.
3. All the entries should be in PDF format.
4. The entries could be digital submissions, hand-drawn sketches, paintings with any medium, and illustrations.
5. Participants must not be NDMA's employee, officer, or agent, or an employee, officer, or agent of any person or organization involved in running the competition, and employee of any organisation working in the field of disaster management in the country.
6. The participant will be required to provide the name, email address, telephone number, and postal address. By submitting contact details, consent will have to be given to these details for the Contest.
7. One entrant can participate only once. Multiple entries from the same entrant will lead to the participant's disqualification.
8. Our decision regarding all matters to do with the competition will be final, and no correspondence will be entered into.
9. The competition results will be announced on our website and social media.
10. Competition entries will not be returned. Please, therefore, keep a copy of your competition entries.
11. We may undertake publicity activities relating to competitions and prize awards.
12. All other personal details collected as part of the competition will be used in conjunction with our Privacy Policy.
13. The content must be original and should not violate any provision of the Indian Copyright Act, of 1957. Anyone found infringing on others' copyright would be disqualified from the competition. The government of India does not bear any responsibility for copyright violations or infringements of intellectual property carried out by the participants.
