

Coming of Age in 2024: Explore Your Political Identity and Values

OCT. 2-NOV. 4, 2024

Illustration by Cindy Lozito

In a year of pivotal elections around the world, we want to hear from teenagers about their civic and political experiences, values, beliefs, hopes and concerns.

Tell us in words, images, audio or video. You can work alone or with others to make almost anything you like -- whether a poem, essay, painting, video, song, podcast, comic or infographic -- as long as it addresses one or more of the themes below.

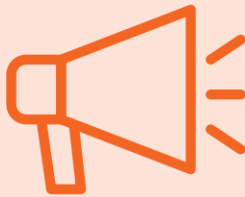

Make Something That Addresses One of These Themes:

Your Identity, Beliefs and Values

Having Conversations
Across Divides

Issues You Care About

Information and Disinformation

Hope for the Future

Contest Rules

- This contest is open to students ages 13 to 19 in middle and high school anywhere in the world.
- You can submit almost anything that you can upload digitally, whether writing, images, audio or video.
- You must also submit an artist's statement of up to 400 words that explains how your work connects to our themes.
- Submissions are due by Nov. 4, 2024, at 11:59 p.m. Pacific.

Visit the contest page to see the full guidelines and submit.

The New York Times
Learning Network