

CARA Adoption Storytelling

Terms & Conditions

1. The contest is open to all Indian citizens
2. This competition supports the CARA's Mission for raising awareness towards Foster Care and Foster Adoption.
3. All entries must be submitted at www.mygov.in. Entries through other means will not be considered.
4. Participants grant the organizers an exclusive, irrevocable, royalty-free license to all rights, including intellectual property, for their submissions.
5. Organizers have the right to publish, use, adapt, edit, and modify submissions in any media, worldwide and in perpetuity, for purposes including advertising and promotion.
6. Please note that the story must be original and should not violate any provision of the Indian Copyright Act 1957. Anyone found infringing on others' copyright would be disqualified from the competition. National Commission for Women does not bear any responsibility for copyright violations or infringements of intellectual property carried out by the participants.
7. Participants should ensure their MyGov profile is complete. This profile will be used by the Ministry of Women and Child Development for all future communications.
8. Organizers reserve the right to amend or withdraw the competition and terms at any time.
9. Submissions must not contain illegal, obscene, provocative, or inappropriate content.
10. The committee's decision is final. No re-evaluation requests will be entertained.
11. These terms are governed by Indian law.
12. By submitting, participants agree to these terms and conditions.
13. There are no charges/registration fees for participation in the competition.