

Veer Baal Diwas Poetry Competition

Terms & Conditions:

1. The contest is open to all Indian citizens.
2. The poem can be submitted in either pdf/jpg format.
3. The poem must be an original piece of work, reflecting the theme of patriotism.
4. While Hindi and English are the preferred languages for submission, entries can be submitted in any regional language.
5. A poem shouldn't exceed one A4 size page.
6. Entries judged on the combination of overall creativity, originality, and emotional impact may be recognised further.
7. All entries must be submitted at www.mygov.in. Entries through other means will not be considered.
8. Participants grant the organizers an exclusive, irrevocable, royalty-free license to all rights, including intellectual property, for their submissions.
9. Submissions must be original, complying with the Indian Copyright Act, 1957. Infringements will result in disqualification.
10. Organizers reserve the right to amend or withdraw the competition and terms at any time.
11. Submissions must not contain illegal, obscene, provocative, or inappropriate content.
12. The committee's decision is final. No re-evaluation requests will be entertained.
13. These terms are governed by Indian law. By submitting, participants agree to these terms and conditions.